

TEAM ANGEL IMPACT TALK:

| The Founder of Team AngelWolf (Nick Watson) presents his inspirational LIVE talk to a variation of audiences; schools, corporates and community social events.

The LIVE talks are adapted to the specific audience and the topic of the function, but always based upon the story of Team AngelWolf and its messages; The fun, emotional, upbeat inspiration talk is based upon the story of Team AngelWolf; including Tribe Watson’s personal journey of having a child with disabilities, life, work, health and fitness. Nick clearly shows, that in personal and in work experience, that life is never easy, life can cause stress, life can throw complications, life is not always as you plan it, BUT, you can ALWAYS find inspiration and motivation in the most toughest of situations; and these skills can be incorporated into your daily personal and work life, to make your situation more positive and productive. Nick will prove by example how to find these inspirations and motivations, from his own personal experience; which may in turn help you to help others in the process!
